

Nominations to the Board of Community Land Scotland 2016

Directors can only be nominated by full members of Community Land Scotland but the person nominated need not be a director of their board, so a community company that is a member of Community Land Scotland may nominate a director from their board, a person who lives in their community or someone who lives elsewhere. Forms should be returned to John Hutchison at jch@abrach.com by midnight on the 25th April 2016.
