

West Harris Trust

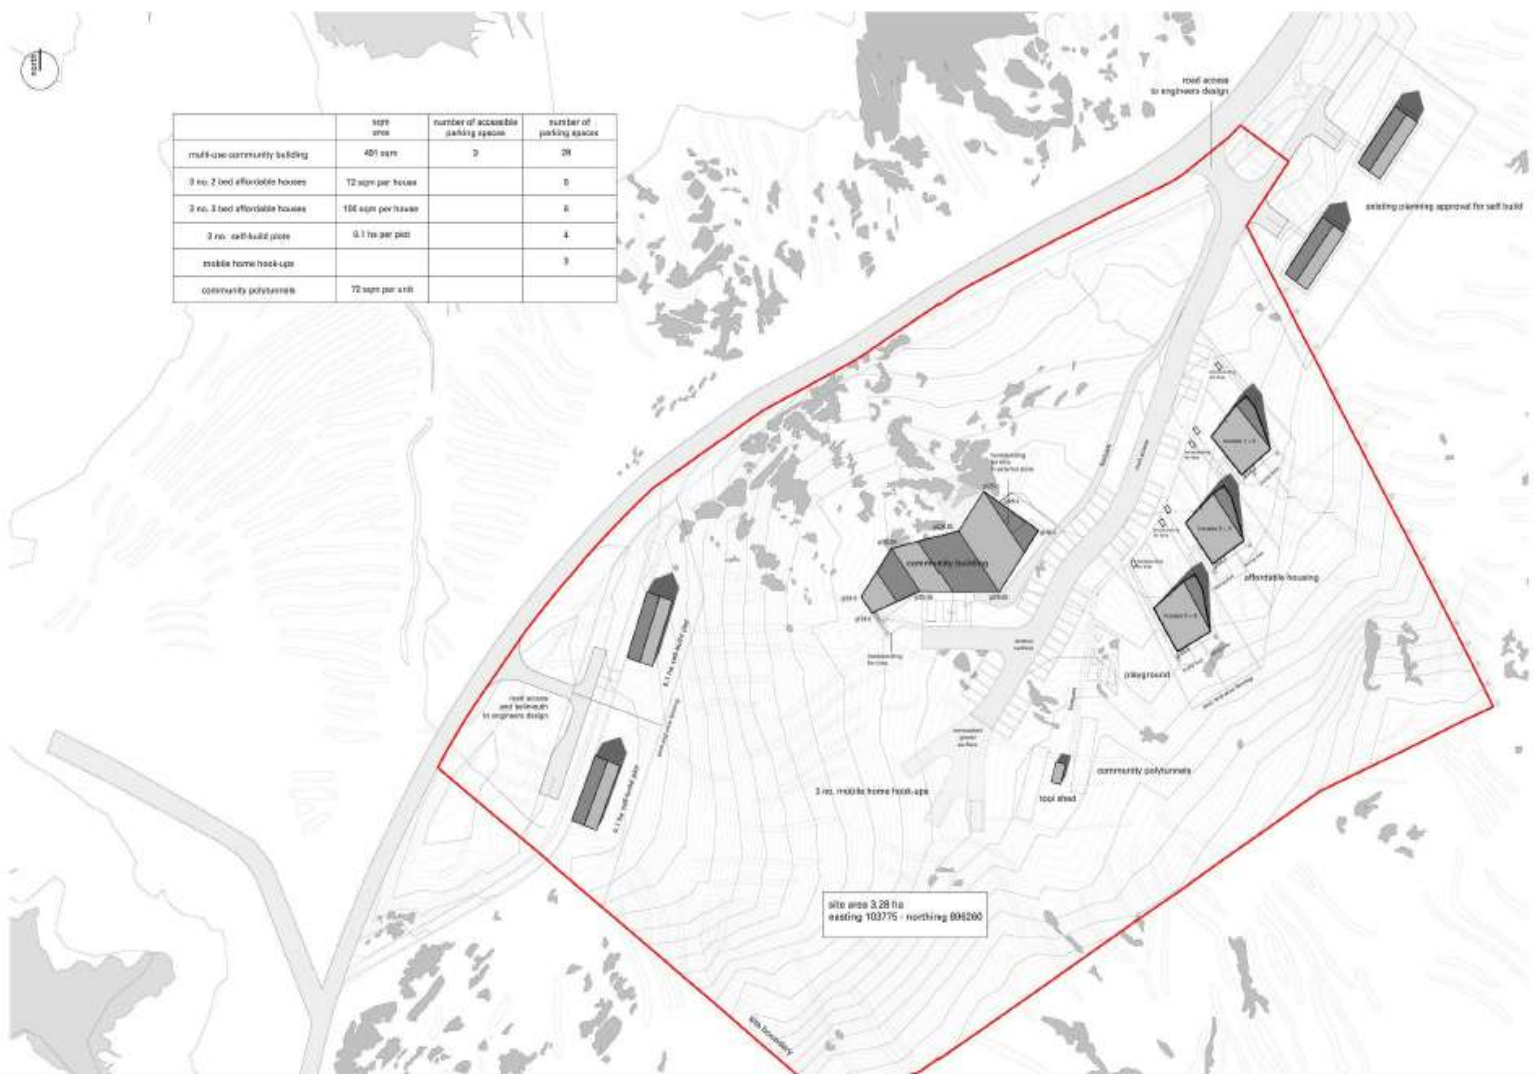

Harbon 60kw

	typ. area	number of accessible parking spaces	number of parking spaces
multi-use community building	401 sqm	3	26
3 no. 2 bed affordable houses	172 sqm per house		0
3 no. 3 bed affordable houses	166 sqm per house		6
3 no. self-build plots	0.1 ha per plot		4
mobile home hook-ups			9
community polytunnels	72 sqm per unit

site area 3.28 ha existing 103775 - northring 896290

roof access to engineers design existing planning approval for self build roof access and balconies to engineers design

6.1 ha self-build plots

6.1 ha self-build plots

3 no. mobile home hook-ups community polytunnels

playground affordable housing

multi-use community building

8th boundary

- What is WaveNET?
- How WaveNET Works
- Array Configurations
- Technology Development
- Home

What is WaveNET?

A radical new solution for economically viable wave energy

WaveNET is an offshore array-based wave energy converter that uses the motion of waves to generate electricity. The floating structure of the WaveNET is flexible in all directions, and capable of capturing power from the ocean regardless of wave direction and array orientation.

West Harris Trust

West Harris Energy Park

Feasibility Report

By:

Smarter Grid Solutions Ltd.

LCITP ASSISTANCE

- SGS Feasibility Study
 - Modelled power demand and supply
 - Private wire network
 - Mini district heating system
 - No to battery storage

LCITP ASSISTANCE

- Design of private wire and district heating
- Financial modelling
- Legal advice and structures
- Investment agreement

Any Questions?

SSE RESILIENCE FUND

- Back-up generator
- VHF Radios
- Centre to act as Emergency Hub/Rest Centre

