Report of the directors (incorporating the trustees' report)

The directors present their report and the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2019. The directors, who are also trustees of Community Land Scotland for the purposes of charity law and who served during the year and up to the date of this report are set out on page 1.

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out in note 1 to the accounts and comply with the charity's trust deed, the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended), the Companies Act 2006 and Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland published on 16 July 2014.

Structure, governance and management

Structure of the company

The structure of the company consists of:

Members

The members have the right to attend the annual general meeting (and any other general meeting) and have important powers under the articles of association; in particular they elect people to serve as directors and take decisions in relation to changes in the organisation.

Directors

The directors hold regular meetings during the period between annual general meetings and generally control and supervise the activities of the company. In particular, the directors are responsible for monitoring the financial position of the company. The maximum number of directors is 12 of whom no more than 7 shall be elected directors, and no more than 5 shall be co-opted directors. Co-opted directors are those appointed by the Board on the basis that that person has special skills or experience which would be of assistance to the Board.

Membership

Full Membership is open to any organisation led and managed by the community which has a stated interest in owning or managing land for the benefit of the community. Associate membership is open to any other individual or organisation which wishes to support the aims and activities of the company. A register of membership is maintained by the company. In order to pursue the objectives of the company, the directors attend meetings, conferences, and discussions on behalf of the company to promote its aims and objectives. The Board has also appointed a policy director to research and prepare policy documents on relevant issues and to present these as required on the company's behalf.

Risk policy

The directors have assessed the major risks to which the charity is exposed, and in particular those related to the operations and finances of the charity, and are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate any exposure to these risks.

Reserves policy

The policy of the charity is to aim to retain sufficient reserves to meet the cost of any commitments, as well as a contingency to enable it to continue to develop further projects. At this time, the main activities of the company are grant funded, and there are insufficient reserves to pursue additional projects.

Objectives and activities

The company's objects are to advance community development in Scotland, by maximising the impact of the community land movement as a major driver for community development throughout Scotland, and in particular through;

- promoting and representing the interests of community landowners across Scotland, at all levels of local and national government and their agencies;

- promoting the benefits of community landownership and proactively encouraging new community landowners;

- working with like-minded relevant organisations to ensure appropriate support for community landownership;

- facilitating networking and mutual support amongst community landowners.

Achievements and performance

Community Land Scotland is a membership based organisation set up in 2010 to represent the views of existing and aspiring community landowners in Scotland. It also facilitates knowledge exchange between members, and both funds and encourages research into the development of community land ownership.

The organisation continues to contribute on behalf of members by engaging with national and local government, third sector organisations, research institutions and other interested parties and individuals.

2019 was another busy year for CLS and its members. Growing numbers of communities across Scotland, but especially in the urban areas and the South of Scotland, pursued community ownership with a consequent rise in awareness of the transformational impacts it can bring in these communities. The Scottish Land Commission continued its important work in exploring better ways of using Scotland's land for all its people and we were pleased to be able to contribute to their work programme in a variety of ways.

We were able to secure an important contribution to the Act setting up the South of Scotland Enterprise agency which now includes community ownership as one of its objectives. We also worked with various agencies and politicians to ensure rural repopulation was included in Scotland's National Outcomes and the desirability of rural repopulation and resettling depopulated land was reflected in the new Planning Act.

A focus on rural repopulation led CLS to forming strong links with other agencies working in the sector and a survey of our members which demonstrated how central they were to addressing the lack of affordable housing in their own communities. This work will be developed further in 2020, with strong representations to be made for the continuation of the essential Scottish Land Fund and Rural and Islands Housing Fund post 2021.

We also grew our work in the urban areas, reflecting an exponential interest in urban communities wanting to buy land and buildings that are important to them. We welcomed Martin Avila of Kinning Park onto our Board and Martin has been critical in helping us understand the differing challenges urban communities face in their ownership journey. We held several gathering and networking events, all of which were very well attended. We also brought together a wide range of agencies and individuals to our Balbirnie event in February from which we developed a detailed Urban Strategy aimed at supporting more urban communities to buy assets. This includes an Urban Hub - a space for communities to find out more, network, access support and share good practice and learning. The Hub will come into being in 2020.

We also reviewed what we were doing and where we could improve our service to members. Supported by Community Enterprise, we identified several areas for action including better post-acquisition support. This is something we will be concentrating on in the coming year.

2019 saw another successful Community Land Week which we delivered in partnership with Scottish Government. This is a very positive way of sharing some of our members stories with a much wider audience and we hope to see this return in 2021.

The transformational impacts of community land ownership continue to be felt across Scotland and our role is to ensure these benefits are better understood and shared. We are fortunate in that we have so many inspiring and ambitious communities as members and look forward to sharing their journeys over the coming year. Membership grew to 92 over the period and our social media following has becoming increasingly important to our work.

As always, we would like to thank our funders and supporters for all they do to help us in this work. We would also like to thank those Board members who left the Board during the year, including Angela Williams who has been with us since the start. We wish them all the best. And welcome our new Board members - Martin, Jo and Morven who have much to contribute to our work.

Financial review

Community Land Scotland has operated within its financial budget, and has closely monitored its income and expenditure against forecast figures throughout the year.

At the year end the charity had total funds of £151,412 (2018: £71,675) Of these £25,180 (2018: £7,131) were unrestricted and available for general use, while £126,232 (2018: £64,544) was restricted.

The restricted funds can only be used for the purposes intended as shown in the note on restricted funds.

Trustees' responsibilities in relation to the financial statements

The directors (who are also trustees of Community Land Scotland under charity law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in operation.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and which enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006, the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The directors are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the corporate and financial information included on the charity's website. Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

Duncan Grout ACCA of R A Clement Associates was deemed to be reappointed as independent examiner and the directors recommend that Duncan Grout ACCA remains in office until further notice.

Small company provisions

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions for small companies under Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006.

Independent examiner's report to the directors on the unaudited financial statements of Community Land Scotland.

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 December 2019 set out on pages 2 to 16.

This report is made to the charity's Trustees in accordance with the terms of my engagement. My work has been undertaken to enable me to prepare the financial statements on behalf of the charity's Trustees and for no other purpose.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the charity's Trustees, as a body, for my work or this report.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and independent examiner

The charity's trustees (who are also the directors of the company for purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 (the Act) and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity's trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act, and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Regulations
 - to prepare accounts which agree with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Regulationshave not been met, or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Notes to financial statements

Legal Status of the charity

The charity is constituted as a company limited by guarantee and is governed in accordance with its Memorandum of Association.

1. Accounting policies

The principal accounting policies adopted are summarised below.

1.1. Basis of preparation and assessment of going concern.

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention with items recognised at cost or transaction value unless otherwise stated in the relevant note(s) to these accounts.

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended) as well as the Companies Act 2006, and the Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP)- Accounting and Reporting by Charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (effective January 2015) (FRS 102).

The charity meets the definition of a public benefit entity as defined by FRS 102.

The directors, who are the trustees of the charity under charity law, consider that there are no material uncertainties about the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern.

1.2. Incoming resources

Income is recognised in the statement of financial activities when the charity is entitled to the income, any performance conditions attached have been met, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be quantified with reasonable accuracy. Such income is only deferred when the donor specifies performance conditions which must be met before the charity has unconditional entitlement. The following specific policies are applied to particular categories of income:

Voluntary income is received by way of grants, donations and gifts and is included in full in the statement of financial activities when receivable. Grants where entitlement is not conditional on the delivery of a specific performance by the charity, are recognised when the charity becomes unconditionally entitled to the grant.

Donated services and facilities are included at the value to the charity where this can be quantified. The value of services provided by volunteers has not been included.

Grants, are recognised in full in the statement of financial activities in the year in which they are receivable. Income from investments is included in the year in which it is receivable.

Community Land Scotland
(A company limited by guarantee)

1.3. Resources expended

Expenditure is recognised when there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to make a payment to a third party, it is probable that settlement will be required and the amount of the obligation can be reliably measured.

All expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis. All expenses including support costs and governance costs are allocated on an appropriate basis to the various activities of the charity. Where costs cannot be allocated directly, they are apportioned to categories on the basis of a reasonable estimate of the costs.

Fundraising costs are those incurred in generating income from various activities and do not include the costs of disseminating information in support of the charitable activities.

Governance costs include those costs necessary for the board to fulfil its constitutional and statutory obligations and are now included as support costs included in charitable activities.

Support costs are those costs incurred directly in support of expenditure on the objects of the charity and include project management.

The charity is not registered for VAT and accordingly expenditure includes all vat which is irrecoverable.

1.4. Defined contribution pension schemes

Employees of the charity are entitled to join a defined contribution "money purchase" scheme. The charity contribution is restricted to the contributions disclosed in note 9. There were no outstanding contributions at the year end. The costs of the defined contribution scheme are included in the appropriate cost centres and charged to the relevant fund.

1.5. Financial Instruments

The charity has only financial assets and financial liabilities of a kind that qualify as basic financial instruments. Basic financial instruments are initially recognised at transaction value and are subsequently measured at their settlement value with the exception of bank loans which are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method.

Purposes of restricted funds

SCA

The purpose of the grant is to fund research, writing and publication of Community Land Scotland's Land Reform Manifesto.

SCA Urban

The purpose of the grant is to fund travel expenses for site visits to urban community landowners. A transfer of £90 from the unrestricted fund was made during the year to cover a small deficit.

Carnegie UK Trust & HIE

Travel awards have been received from Carnegie UK Trust and HIE over the past few years towards the cost of attending events in the UK and Europe in order to share the experiences of Community Land Scotland with interested parties and increase knowledge of community land ownership. A further award from the Carnegie Trust in 2017 was spent in the year and the remaining surplus transferred to the unrestricted fund.

Scottish Government - Support and Promotion

Grants to deliver support and promotion activities in rural and urban areas. Eligible projects have been identified to utilise the balance of the fund in the 2020 year. It should be noted that the Scottish Government and Community Land Scotland's financial years do not coincide. £45,575 received in the 2019 year relates to costs incurred in the previous year.

HIE - Policy Development

During the year the charity received £18,744 from Highlands and Islands enterprise. This was part of a total award of up to £90,000 receivable over three years towards the cost of research, policy development and contributing to resources in the sector. The deficit on the fund will be met by the balancing payment £10,000 still to be drawn down for which a claim is currently being prepared.

Esmee Fairbairn Foundation Funding

During the year an award of £20,000 for furthering policy development with regards to community land ownership was received from Esmee Fairburn.
